

Pavilion Policy

Peabody Institute Library of Danvers

The Rotary Pavilion cannot be booked for private parties. Peabody Park which surrounds the Peabody Institute Library is for public events such as concerts, lectures, etc.

The Pavilion cannot be used for private weddings, birthday parties, family gatherings etc.

Space has been set aside at Endicott Park for private events.
Patrons can contact Endicott Park by calling 978-774-6518.

Any questions about the use of the Pavilion or Peabody Park should be directed to Library Director Alan Thibeault.

Library Property can be used at any time for wedding pictures. Permits are not required. Reservations for particular times are not accepted.